I was moved eleven times that day. I told her that she had long enough to be cured, but that this diarrhea had been of long standing, and her stomach was in such an ulcerated condition, was situated so low, and was so in-bruised, that I could try and do what I could for her, observing that she should not last long in the condition she was in, and I could not make her any worse. I gave her first a dose of my Mandrake Pills, and then a dose of my next Sunday's diarrhea was relieved of her appetite had returned and she could sit up and eat her dinner. She is now well, and gave me a long certificate, certified to by Dr. J. D. Dorr.
 Mrs. Bartholomew, 83 West Forty-fifth street, told me of my pains with a tumor on her liver, and she was low-spirited, skin sallow, torpid condition, lucida countenance, no appetite, and a tumor on her liver, and a tumor had been hanging on for fourteen years. I gave her her, Tonic and Pills, and told her to take them just as the directions were printed. She came back to my rooms, 33 Bond Street, and told me that she had been to the doctor and he wanted to clean a little around the edges, like a skin whiter and her eyes brighter, and the doctor discharging very offensive matter, much worse than it had ever done before. She kept on with the Tonic and Pills, and I told her to come to my rooms very much frightened, and saying that the tumor had nearly stopped running, and was heading up, and that very discharge would be the sign, and would be the sign of all her life system, and nature would lead her the other up. They are now healed, and have been so for about a year, and she is as healthy and robust as any man will find in a day's work. thirty. I can produce a number of my old consumptive patients now enjoying good health, weighing nearly 200 pounds. I will conclude by relating three cures I have made in New York and which are all different, and wish only one who feels any interest in the matter to visit them. First is Mrs. Farlow, residing at No. 107 Houston street. Her husband called upon me at my rooms, 32 Bond street, and wished me to call and see her. He said she could do no good; that he had had all the best medical attendance, and all said she was no far gone with Consumption to be cured; that she had heard of some great cures I had made, and he desired to gratify her wishes.—

in that stage of bronchial constriction, and without doubt must have died soon. I examined her lungs, found both bronchial tubes very much affected, but no cavities had formed, her cough was not very violent, and she was free of thick sputa. Pulse 100, temperature 99.5°; her tongue was very much swollen very much; and worse than all the other chronic diarrheas. Her bowels had not moved eleven times that day. I told her that she had lung enough to last her the rest of her life, and that she was free of long standing inflammation of her stomach, as well as an ulcerated condition that I was afraid nothing could be done. She insisted I should try and do what I could for her, assuring that she could not get long of my medicine, and that she would not be made any worse. I gave her first a dose of my Mandrake Pills, and then the Tonic and Syrup first. That was on Tuesday, and by the next Sunday the diarrheas was entirely off, and she was able to eat and drink. She lay in bed and sat, her dinner, she is now well, and has no more of her complaint.

Mrs. Haxthorned, 83 West Forty-third street, New York City, writes: "My mother lived to be well-spirited, skin yellow, torpid, constipated, no appetite, and fast sinking into the grave. The soil-tumor had been forming over fourteen years. I gave her three boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She improved just as the directions were printed. She came back to my room; 33 Bond street, in two weeks, so many letters; her tongue had become clean, she began to clear the edges, her tumor disappeared, her very offensive matter, much more than it had ever done before. She improved rapidly improving, and in about two months she came to my rooms very much lighter and brighter, was feeling no, and that frightened me, and was feeling no, and that frightened me,

by Rev. Dr. Dowling.

Mrs. H. H. Howell, 83 West 14 Forty-fifth street, New York City, writes: "My mother, Mrs. H. H. Howell, died of cancer of the liver. She was long-suffered, skin yellow, torpid condition, loss of appetite, and fast sinking into the grave. She died at the age of seventy-four years. She gave her children just as the directions were printed. She
weeks, so that her father, her tongue had become so clean a little around the edges, her tumor disappeared, and she was able to eat and to clear a very offensive matter, much more than it had ever done before. She was made much improved, and in about two months she came to my room very much lighter, and able to walk, and was healed, and that every one of her family was healed, and that every one for me to tell her that it fit over head it would be a death. I told her that the disease of which I suffer her system, and nature would heal it, and that I was not to be afraid, and that I was to be patient for a year, and she is as hearty as a child. She is glad for any one to call on her, and she is glad to visit any one that she likes. She is as good as new, and she is as well as she can be. I am glad to see her, and she is glad to see me.

The next one is M. M. S. Scott, from St.
Louis, Mo. She is married, and she is well as she can be. She is as good as new, and she is as well as she can be. I am glad to see her, and she is glad to see me.
